The BAND

Last summer before school started the band as usual was busy with summer band rehearsals. Every year the band has rehearsals and if a member misses more than two he is not qualified to go on the trip at the end of the summer.

On August 30, the band members took a day off and went on an all day excursion. Instead of the usual trip to the State Fair they decided to go to Cedar Point.

This year the East Palestine High School Band played at all the home and out of town football games except Louisville. The school clubs helped to make this possible by donating money so the band could charter a bus for one of the out of town games.

For one of the games the band did a number called the Minstrel Jubilee and dedicated it to the Local Minstrel Association. It was one of the nicest performances the band did this year.

The band also purchased a new school flag and it was used for the first time in the Armistice Day Parade.

The Trophy

IT CAN ONLY HAPPEN ONCE IN A HUNDRED YEARS

Also before school started the band was asked to take part in the Alliance Centennial, which only happens once in a hundred years.

There were 18 marching units in the parade altogether, but then there were a lot of beautiful floats. Out of those 18 units there were three drum and bugle corps and 15 bands.

By the time the parade got started it was dark and if it wasn't fun trying to play music in the dark I don't know what was, but we didn't do very badly. Every time we came to a street light we would try to play.

When we finally reached the stadium where the pageant was to take place, everyone was so hot and worn out I don't think we could have marched another step.

Then the funniest thing of all happened. We won a trophy. We didn't even know that we were in a contest. Even Mr. Royer didn't know it. So naturally when they called him to come over and get the trophy you can imagine the look on his face. He thought it was some kind of a joke and wasn't even going to go get it.

Of course it wasn't the first or second place but we got third and we're proud of it. Because you see the Salem American Legion Quaker City Band got first, the Masonic Band from Akron got second, and the East Palestine High School Band got third, but we were the only high school out of 15 to win a trophy.

FOOTBALL

The Bulldogs, under the direction of Coach Howard Parker, started the season with 15 lettermen: seniors, Bud Allard, Willis Walker, Don Hulton, Gordon Duwe, Roland Edwards, Phil Thayer, and Bill George; Juniors, Ken Parker, Pat McDanel, Bob Holloway, Cliff Davis; and sophomores, Tony Conkle and Harold Bush.

Each senior letterman acted as captain of a game. East Palestine opened the season at home against Leetonia and got off to a good start by winning a close one 12 to 6. The game was decided in the last minute by a pass from Walker to Davis for a score.

The Bulldogs had little trouble in trimming Sebring 26-6 the following week, on the latter's field. Herrington, Brown and White fullback, had quite an evening, scoring twice on runs of 15 and 20 yards.

After losing to Salem the next week 33-0, the Lisbon Blue Devils came to town for a Tri-County encounter. The Parkermen played a very good first half, but fell completely apart the second half and were defeated by the score of 44-7.

Rebounding from two straight losses, the Brown and White defeated Poland 18-0. The thrill of the game was Davis' returning a punt 70 yards for a score.

The Bulldogs added another win to their record the following week when they defeated Minerva 7-6. The Bulldogs leading 7-0 at half-time maintained that lead until the final minute of play, when Minerva scored but failed to add the extra point.

Next on the schedule, Boardman came to town for what was rated by some people, as the best game they ever saw. Although the Bulldogs played their best game of the season, they were defeated 27-26.

At Louisville the Bulldogs, handicapped by the weather, went down in defeat 26-6. The lone touchdown was scored when Walker threw a pass to Conkle during the first 3 minutes of play.

The Brown and White once again came out on top, defeating the Columbiana Clippers 26-0. The Bulldogs were led that night by Herrington, who scored twice. This ended the season for the Parkermen, with 5 wins and 4 losses.

Cliff Davis was named to the Tri-County and County First Teams as a halfback while Rolland Edwards was named to the County and Tri-County Second Teams. Earl Herrington also placed on the Tri-County Second Team and the County Third Team.

BASKETBALL

The East Palestine Bulldogs ended the 1950 51 season with a 5-14 record.

After starting off on the wrong foot, the team won a very exciting game from Wellsville by a score of 48 to 47.

Following a few games on the low end of the scoring column the Bulldogs copped a surprise victory over a highly rated Columbiana team.

Being downed by a fast Boardman team didn't stop the Bulldogs. They won the following game from Wintersville by a 58-41 score.

Playing a close game for three quarters the Bulldogs were overcome by a last quarter spurt by the Lisbon five.

Traveling to Leetonia for the next game, the Bulldog cagers defeated Leetonia by a 60-55 score.

Following losses to Salem, Poland, and Sebring, the Bulldogs lost another hard fought battle to the Woodrow Wilson five by a 52-51 count.

The Bulldogs drew Chaney for the tournament play at Youngstown South Field House. They were downed by the Chaney five to end the season.

Coach Martin expects a rip-roaring team for next year. The prospective reserves ended with an 8-8 record.

Playing their last year of high school basketball for E.P.H.S. were three seniors, Wesley Schellenger, Willis Walker, and Gary Harding.

TRACK

The 1950 Track team started the season with only six returning lettermen, but turned in one of their most successful seasons. They were led by Glenn Young, a senior, who broke three school records, the broad jump, 120 yard high hurdles, and the 220 yard hurdles. Six qualified to attend the State meet at Columbus in which East Palestine captured 5th place.

PITTSBURGH INDOOR MEET. East Palestine trackmen qualified in five events in the preliminaries. In the finals Glenn Young won first in the broad jump and 50 yard hurdles. In the mile-relay, East Palestine won second place and Bud Allard tied for fourth in the pole vault.

The East Palestine tracksters also took part in the Winchester Invitation Meet. Glenn Young sparked the team by taking four events and also anchored the shuttle hurdle relay.

East Palestine placed third in the Washington Invitation Meet where the mile-relay team broke the school record for the first time.

At the Salem Night Relays, Glenn Young took all honors with three firsts.

The annual County Track Meet was held at East Palestine with five teams competing. Glenn Young headed the scoring with four firsts. He also broke three records. Joe Dudas set a new school record in the 440 yard dash.

At the district track meet, East Palestine won second place and qualified six track men.

State Meet, Columbus. East Palestine scored 10 $\frac{1}{10}$ points for fifth place. Glenn Young tied the state record in the high hurdles with a time of 14.6. He also placed in two other events. Robert Taylor came through for a tie for fifth place. The mile-relay team, made up of Roland Edwards, Willis Walker, Jos Dudas, and Earl Herrington, broke the school record for the fifth time of the season with a time of 3 34. 3.

In two tri-meets, East Palestine cindermen won both easily.

Glenn Young was on the State Track team and Earl Herrington and Jos Dudas had Honorable Mention.

CLASS PROPHECY

Let's take a peek at the graduating class of 1951. Ten progressive years have passed since the night of May 23, 1951.

Bill George, who is now a retired swimming coach, has invited the whole class up to his swanky summer resort set back in the stripper cuts on East Main Street. It's really a well built place, but then what can you expect with Bud Allard doing the engineering. Bill says that Mick Ross has some credit coming to him as he dug the ditches around it.

Extravagant invitations were printed by the one and only, now famous Bob Zuch. The extravagant part being, is cost each of us $10. This will probably be turned over to Vera Weitz, who has the Personal Loan. She has been collecting money from the Alumni ever since we graduated. She says it's good for a cause. (Source of finance for George).

The first guest to arrive is Nelda Harvey. She came early to inspect her beautiful job of interior decorating. Her color scheme is superb, consisting of purple, orange, and blue stripes with red polka dots thrown in. She drove up in one of the famous Dave Huff Cadillac cars. Along with her are Carol Merwin, Sally Curry and Thelma Carlson. Carol brought along one of her famous fruit cakes—noted to be both “nutty” and “crumby.” Thelma has a box of miniature dolls to give to the married girls of the class. Darlene Huff will receive her share as she now has 3 sets of twins. Sally Curry is looking very well in her Paris Creation. Sal has her own shop now.

Bob Taylor and Phil Thayer made their grand entrance to the playing of Anchor's Away. Bob is now the naval Chief of Staff, Phil is an admiral and is famous for his fastest retreat in the Korean War.

The Unity bus has just arrived stopping with a jerk, throwing off Wilma Sheely, Lona Upole, June Stanonik, and Rita Schmidt. They're now sole owners of the Unity bus lines. It looks like almost every one is either here or going to be.

Over by the pool Joanne Ward is telling Dariel Webster an annoying story of how not to stay young and keep your dimples.

John Bissontz is trying to show Harold Henderson how to be a great All-Star catcher. It'll be hopeless as Hendy is a Pool Room man himself.

Looks like Betty Justison, Velma Nesbitt, Ruth Ann McTague and Lois Rafferty are having a hen party by themselves. Probably discussing their office jobs.

Earl Herrington sure looks tired, probably because he has been running ever since he took the quarter mile in the Olympics.

Looks like Denver Rhodes and Jim Mackall are in a hot argument about automobiles. Jim owns the Canfield Speedway while Denver has his own mechanics shop.

Sweet music fills the air as the torch singers, Martha Rambo and Roland Edwards start to serenade us. Oh! sweet music.

This has started something, because now Jerry Murphy shows us a few steps she teaches at Arthur Murrays.

Barbara Brook and Joanne Miller seem to be quite the business of selling bottled salt water in Death Valley. They say it does not seem to be prosperous yet. “Never say die” is their motto.

Marilyn Saviers and Willis Walker seem to be celebrating their wedding anniversary.

A group of boys were missing, but were found gathered around Orin Mason trying to learn a few card tricks. Stanley Tripp is trying to translate it back into French. French is one of Stanley's best languages.

Poor Tom Flickinger is too busy tending bar to hear John Gordon talk on his adventure since he became a Dr. of Philosophy. Oh well, Kenny Kibler is standing by bragging about his B. S. in chemistry.

Ila Fay Grim has been inviting everyone over to her Tea Room after the party. There will be music supplied by Kenny Crawl's famous Local Yokel Band. For a special attraction, she's going to have John Clark, the now famous movie star and Martin Cope Hollywood's new Tarzan. Ila said maybe the famous radio comedians—Sally Stewart and Pat Chamberlain, - will come. Shirley Craig just walked through the doors and she made her famous statement - “I just dropped in for a laugh.”

It seems that someone has been casing the joint. To our surprise, it was Dorothy Vevers our ladydetective. She came upon Jack Foreman, tearing down the television set. It seems she ran into competition when she found Jim Guy snooping around.

CLASS PROPHECY

Frankie Tomaccio is giving Marcia Patchen a new hair style. Marcia was with her brother-in-law, Gary Harding. Gary was busy talking politics to Arliss Gorby, who is the Head of the Trustees in the big Metropolis of Negley. Edward Shaffer is trying to get a few words in about his big business in Detroit.

Janice Rae McIntosh and Georgianna Spaite have been here for an hour, and they have been talking about the problems of married life. Georgianna said she stopped pitching Hay around long enough to come. Janice seems to like her home in New Waterford. Poor Pat McCoy has been surrounded by the "Fearless Three" from Enon, who has been asking questions about Pat's Air Force husband. The "Fearless Three" who trotted in from Enon were Ellen Hogue, Jean McElroy, and Jean Mibuck. They said "nothing could keep them away."

Shirley McCown was seen giving everyone a free bottle of Coke. She can afford it, she owns the coke factory.

Lois Brittain was showing Marcia Howard how easily it is to be a good Hog-Caller. Marcia in turn showed her how she won the title of "World's Champion Sneezer." They strained their voices some how, and so had to look up Mary Ann Ferris to fix them up. Mary Ann is now a well known doctor.

Bob Spear and Elmer Simon are trying to figure out if there's any connection between a Hardware Store and a Bowling Alley. Dick Senior changed the subject somewhat, when he stated telling them about aeronautics, of course, they both understood perfectly.

Larry Mackey was found in the kitchen, showing Pete Macklin and Jean Leake some of the best types of meat to buy. He's still the meat boy in the A. & P.

While in swimming Barbara Morey ran into Patsy Mahon. Instead of apologizing she started telling Patsy about her work as the Lisbon News Commentator. Patsy cut her off short, however, and started relating to her the many happenings at the Kenmar factory.

John Pitschke cornered Wes Schellenger and was giving him a few pointers on his basketball playing. John seems to be down town coach who should give basketball stars pointers.

It seems that Ora Lou Souders couldn't make it but she sent one of her famous products, "Guaranteed not to slip hair ribbons." She says they are really swell.

Jane Sowers says that well fitted shoes are the first thing for comfort. This is just a plug for her shoe store. She is now sole owner of Hill's.

Betty Welsh is telling Norma Jean Norton that she has just the thing for her children. Betty is head of the "Non-Slap or String" hair brushes corp. She says the children prefer them to any other make.

Cork Duwe, the Chicago wrestling manager, was overheard having quite a discussion with Joe Guy, a baseball manager. It seems they are really going to town when they were shushed by the Sh-Sh Girls. These being the librarians of our class, Nettie Wolam and Eunice Woods. Were they ever embarrassed.

The party really became a riot when Donald Hulton passed around his new edition of jokes. This was abruptly broken up tho, when John Meek came running towards the pool, followed by Charles Koontz, the Game Warden.—It seems poor John was so absorbed in his week of trapping that he caught Koontz instead of a Coon.

Dave Hall is bragging to Galen Huston about how he just handed in his first term paper at college for the first time in six months. Galen says he has done better than that. He still hasn't found a steady job.

Tom Schneider was going around examining every one's ears when he ran into Wayne Kennedy trying to steam off the wall paper. Tom is a famous ear specialist while Wayne has taken over his father's business of steaming off wallpaper.

Dick Frankland said he had to leave early because he said he's still the man the babies depend on. His motto is "the milk must be delivered, bright and early."

In the evening the party was brought to an end by Mary Catherine Barry telling the story of her latest book "Life of Lower Slob," or better known as "The Life of Lena."

Marg Jordon said she would put a big writeup of the affair in her paper "Sheila's Journal."

And so we end this party and bid adieu to the Class of 1951.
